Larrabure, the ex deputy, has been ugain elected at Pan and M Cheenelong at Oiltry, they are two passable official candidates. It is true the government triumph is on the wane: owing to the means employed to vaunt M. Larra-Lure. The au horities surpassed themselves, they simply imposed silence on the newspapers regarding offi ial condidates. I say-imposed ellence, this seems hardly possible yet it is true. In the Girondo we read from a communication we "believe we ought to refuse publishing in our columns. to our-friends and to keep nurselves from other reflections-it is doubtless painful to be quiet when we wish to speak nevertheless far from complaining we will rather thank the official warning

The best part of it is, that M Larrabure, the official candidate is so much patronised, that he becomes the subject of persecution against the press defeated a year ago in the chamber of deputies. M. Larrabure has always had reconciliaions with his conscience. In 1848 in an electoral committee, the followng scene took pince. A speaker said to a candilate. "Do you agree only to work for the estab-

The Candidate, "I have no wish for monarchy, and I believe a wise republic ought to be thankfully received." In the milet of anplause the two speakers shake hands and cry bay live the republic.

One of them was M. Chesnelong who has just been elected at Oiltry, the other M. Larrabure. When at Paris, members of the legislature, their ory will be ' long live the Emperor" In this pentury, candidat s are like India rubber. The new English cabinet is not yes complete. Lord | larenden has taken Earl Russell's portfolio who has inherited from Lord Palmerston. The programme of the cabinet is not settled, the delicate point is the reform of circulous; well the toric be satisfied with the heading of the movement

Is the question to be adjourned? M. Gladstore was at Glasglaw on the lat November to receive his diploma from the municipali-ty of the industrial capital. Of course in expectation of this visit numerous meetings were arranged to welcome the British Minister, the English people whose political education is made publicly could not miss such a fine opportunity of having his: speech from the Chancellor of the Exchequer were it only to have an idea of the programme of the new Cabinet. M. Gladstone at ones complied and in his reply to the address of the Union for parliamentary reform, he sketched the general features of the social movement in England, he has justly praised England for its rich and worthy industry, he has complimented the English workmen to whom all the markets in the world belong, be calls the 19th century. to the liberal principles of the newly formed cabinet. If Lord Russell favours it, his ministry will strengthen and furnish a lasting and henourable career; but if he adjourns, if he lingers, the reform will ruin Lord Russell and his followers." This is what we gather from the English press and from the numerous springs in which the publie opinion of England shows itself. What renders the situation more difficult is the nilidr of the Shenandoah, which anchored in the Mersey on the 6th : Captain Waddell im aediately wrote to Lord Russell. As soon as negociations are entered upon between the Foreign Office and the American Minister, the vessel will be set at liberty, but Mr. Adams claims the orew. Captain Waddell alleges for his defen a that he aid not know of the cessation of hostilities. Lost in the depth of the Pacific, intsearch after North American vasaels, some of those had told him, when taken that the war was finished; but he took those quotations as a joke and would not believe them. When he heard of Lee's capitulation from a acuteal ship he last down his arms and without onching any port, went to England. On hoard the Shenandach there are 36 chrono neters, a great many textants, furs and ther valumbles proceeding from booty taken from the Confederate pirates in the Arabic Seas. Evident ly if the Shenandouh had harboured elsewhere, she would have taken in each inge provisi as of which they were destitute. "The crew had beneating on salt meat that half of them were attacked with corry, formerly a terrible disease, but now daily liminishing. Persons in favour of the South having heard this solution sent a vessel loade! with beef and vagetables; but the English Officer on guard would not allow the unloading of provisions, declaring that sufficient rations of fresh meat would be supplied by the admiralty. The Shenandonh has on board a company of inhin ry a detachment of sailors from Donegal at some custom house officers. Besides a conside rable outnity of ammunition and cannons there is a large sum of money which Ca, tain Waddell looked upon as belonging toshis government.

The English cabinet has decided on that Captain Waldell and his crew should be put at libery. What will do the Am rican Minister? Important news from Italy evacuation begins and the Popa fright rel, has sacrificed M. de Morode who has been dismissed to make room for slowly 14,000 men

Dec. 4 the 413 deputies to be chosen 160 at most left the first alloting. This result surprising by itself becomes still more so when one knows that of the 394—365 electors inscribed; not a third of them offered o decide the lectoral contest There are in Italy three distinct colours. The party that acts, the Catholic party, and the liberal party. Each of these parties divides into six principal shades. The acting party is composed of Mazzinians who give themselves the name of breaknecks (rompicalle) they are determined patriots whose only object is to deliver I aly from foreigners; who cannot per-nade the governmont to attack Romo or Venice, and wish to form groups to make war in parties. They followed Gariba'di on Sicily and Naples: and Asnr monti. They are fighters rather than politicians, their system consists in keeping up it perpetual agitation so that they may declare without cessing Italy's claims and never to allow their patriotic transports to slumber. This party is puzzling for the government which constantly fears to be called in question by it. Tel second fruction of this party is composed of ale those who without ceasing to have their eyes fixed on Rome and Venice, associate themselves in a certain measure with the politics of the government on condition of hastening by any means the time when Italy shall become her own mistress. They understand that a war of partisans wouldhave little chance between the French and Austring armies, but it does not seem to be altogether. impossible that a vigorous effort of the Italian army would force Austria to let go her prize. They are confident of the miracles that may be produced by patriotic enthusiasm. As for France they are contented in oursing and expecting with impatience the evacuation of Rome. The e minon feature of the two fractions is hatred for the continent and temporal power. The Catholic party, whose colours are the surport of the temporal power and the presection of lie rights of the clergy. On one side the partisans of the Bourbon dynasty, bitter enemies of annexation and Italian Unity; against all reform, liberty, progress; retrograde in every point of view-re-noting to the extreme, on the other, liberals who have fought against the Baurbons, as M. d'Ondes. Reggio at Palune, and who are opposed to the government by their devotion to the Pere and the convents. This party has no influence. In the moderate liberal party the destruction of shades is more difficult to establish. This party is composed of all those who approin Albany Terrace was burglariously extered by certain Chinese unknown, who being armed with swing. Public to the importance of baving the Hair Cut, and Dressed in an Artistic manner and style. Appropriate to the Individual is the cut of the Hair: there can be no fixed prorevailing fashion without destroying almost universally the harmony of the tout enteratie. Indeed as diverse at is the contour of the human head and facial outline, just so peculiar should be the trim and arranger only those Hair-Cutters who possess an inherent judgment in matters of taste, cultivated and improved by incessant study and application. Of this rare class, Professor Whereen, humbly claims to he one, and the Only One in this Colony, and he madestly but confidently invites all who may be distructful of his ability to give him at least a trial before pronouncing an adverse opinion. He may be found at all hours of the day in his Apartments adjoining the Private Entrance of the Oriental Hotel.
